

Tina Hanson, MS, BCBA

Education and Experience

Master of Science in Behavior Analysis and Therapy, SIUC, 2001

BCBA 2001-2017, 2020- Present

One of the first BCBA's in Colorado!

Endorsed as an Infant Family Specialist by Colorado Association of Infant Mental Health,
June 2025

Worked with Adults with Brain Injuries and IDD, 1998-2015.

Adjunct Professor, Metropolitan State College, taught "Introduction to Behavior Analysis".

Professional presentations: Association for Behavior Analysis International, Colorado Society of School Psychologists, the Brain Injury Association of Colorado, and Triad Early Childhood Council.

Founding treasurer of Four Corners Association for Behavior Analysis.

Previous member of the Human Rights Committee with Developmental Disability Resource Center (DDRC).

Professional Mentorships:

Acceptance and Commitment Therapy: Dr. Chad Emerick

Sleep Disorders: Assessment and Treatment, Dr. Brett Kuhn, Professor of Pediatrics and Psychology at the Munroe-Meyer Institute and director of behavioral sleep medicine at the Children's Sleep Disorders Center at the University of Nebraska Medical Center.

Work Settings:

St. Louis Special School District

Developmental Disability Consultants

Laradon Hall

Developmental Disability Resource Center

Denver Behavior Consultants, Lead Social Emotional Therapist

Owner of Sleep Play Calm

Owner of Access Behavior Trainings

Professional Organizations:

Association for Contextual Behavioral Science, Association of Professional Behavior Analysis, International Pediatric Sleep Association, International Association of Child Sleep Consultants, and Zero to Three.